CALDERON GOING HOME.

[EXCLUSIVE DEFACE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Informal negotiations undertaken by the Huerta government in Mexico to secure recognition by the United States apparently have failed.

Although the State Department has made no announcement concerning these negotiations the resignation today of his special mission te the United States by the Huerta regime of Don Fernando Iglesias Calderon indicates that present efforts to restore diplomatic relations between the two countries have not progressed satisfactorily.

Senor Calderon, it was learned tonight, has closed his quarters here and has ordered transportation for himself, members of his family and his special staff to Mexico.

They expect to leave Washington within a week.

Senor Calderon, it is said, is very much disappointed over the failure of his special mission to this country to settle the outstanding differences between the United States and Mexico.

BRANCHES OF ARMY.

(BT CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PADE.)
BERLIN, Oct. 5.—On the occasion of the dissolution of the aviation and of the dissolution of the aviation and artillery branches of the German army, Gen. Yon Seecht, Chief of Staff, issued a proclamation praising German technique in these services. He added that the world held its breath when the first great German cannon transformed the enemy's works into ruins, and the intrenched camp of Paris was bombarded.

Gen. Von Seecht declared that services without number were rendered by the aviation and artillery branches of the army, and he expressed the hope of seeing them revived again.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.--For WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Formal approval has never been given by the Shipping Board to the Hamburg-American-America. Steamship and Commerce Corporation contract for operation of American ships on the former German trade routes, Chairman Benson declared tonight.

The chairman said he had given his personal indorsement to the plan and was still convinced that the agreement was for the best interests of the American merchant marine, but that action by the board awaited appointment of the full board of seven members created by the Jones Merchant Marine Act. Admiral Benson added he would do everything possible to push the proposition.

VALUE SHOWN.

Repeated attacks on the agree-has been made as yet by the American Ship and Commerce Corporation. It was said tonight at the Shipping Board. Officials considered it doubtful if any of the ships taken over from the Germans during the par would be allocated to that company. Most of the ex-enemy vessels, it was explained, are already in established services and sixteen have been allocated to the United States Mail Steamship Company.

INFORMATION SOUGHT.

The French government has asked the United States for information regarding the course to be followed by the Shipping Board in putting former German passenger ships on the German trade routes, it was said to day at the State Department. No protest has been made, officials said, but the French government wished to be informed concerning reports that through transfer of the former enemy liners to the American Shipand Commerce Corporation, the vessels would eventually find their way back to their former owners, the Hamburg-American Line.

No request for allocation of vessels would eventually find their way back to their former owners, the Hamburg-American Line.

No request for allocation of vessels would eventually find their way back to their former owners, the Hamburg-American Line.

The report speaks of the lives as sacrificed "on the altar of carelesses the buck" to the City Council and the Council "passes it to the people." The Council is excertated for having thrown aside suggested ordinances for elimination of fire hazards submitted by the State investigators after a survey about a year ago, and for having failed to enact the property was summarily dismissed by the "blaced on file" route." ways the "placed on file" route." ways the

PEACE PREVAILS THROUGH HAITI.

Marine Corps' Report.

All Large Forces of Bandits Have Been Dispersed.

Still Essential Though to Keep Troops on Duty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — Peace and tranquillity prevail through Haiti, Maj.-Gen. John A. Lejeune commandant of the Marine Corps declared in a report to Secretary Daniels today on his recent investi-gation. The work of the marines in suppressing banditry has won the gratitude of all law-abiding natives, he added.

Instructions of Col. John H. Russell, commanding, insisting upon kindly treatment of the inhabitants by the marines are being loyally and conscientiously enforced by his subordinates, Gen. Lejeune asserted.

WCULD CORRECT REPORTS.
In giving out the report, Secretar Daniels, while making no direct reference to recent charges of Senator Harding that the administration was conducting unconstitutional warfare in Haiti, declared it was given to the public because of recent widely published statements, reflecting upon United States Marines on duty there. The general was sent to Haiti to report on conditions sipce June 30 last, when he became of these statements, Secretary Daniels said.

While reporting an almost total suppression of banditry and law-lessness at present Gen. Lefeune declared that until banditry has been completely stamped out, it is essential for the welfare of Haiti, that the present disposition of Marine forces in the interior should not be changed.

DISPERSE LARGE FORCES,

DISPERSE LARGE FORCES, All large forces of bandits have been dispersed and the last impor-tant bandit leader, Louis Nord, was killed and his force broken up re-cently, the general reported, but there are still remaining a number of small bands, which, he said, hide in the mountains and live by steal-ing.

in the mountains and live by stealing.

"From the manner and actions of the thousands of people we met in the towns and on the roads of the interior," the report said, "It could not be doubted a very kind and friendly feeling exists towards persons wearing the uniform of the United States Marine Corps.

"My heart was filled with pride to see these splendid men of the Marine Corps, giving to their country and to the republic of Haiti such intelligent, sealous, efficient and courageous service. I feel that the American people have every right to the proud of their representatives who are now wearing the uniform of the Marine Corps in Haiti."

Military Party in Dublin Takes All Letters; MacSwiney No Worse.

(BT CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

DUBLIN, Oct. 5.—On the arrival in Dublin today of the mails from the provinces and from England a military party entered the asserting station and curried away all letters. Business men inquiring for the mail were informed that the military authorities had all of it, but the delivery would take place after the A similar method of obtaining information already has been employed by the government in other Irish centers.

MacSWINEY NO WORSE.
[INT CARLE AND ASSOCIATED PRIME]
LONDON, Oct. 5.—The condition of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, remained unchanged tonight. Authentic information regarding his fast continues to be confined to cryptic statements by the home office and the somewhat more elaborate bulleting from the Irish Self-Determination League.

The statements from both sources have been for some time of a rather streetyped form, but inquiries to day in both quarters brought word that neither government officials nor the MacSwiney family believe the prisoner is in imminent danger of death.

League officers said they thought that, although the Mayor was much exhausted, careful nursing would restors him to normal health should

CUT TIME TO LOS ANGELES.

WASHINGTON. Oct. 5.—Los Angeles will be four hours nearer the East after November I. When the new trains of all the roads running to California are put in operation about the first of next month, the time will be cut from the present schedule of seventy-two hours to sixty-eight hours.

This statement was made here to-night by Maurins De Brabant, assistant general traffic manager of the Salt Lake Railroad, who is here for a series of important transportation conferences.

The new arrangement has just been agreed to by all the lines in Chicago and will be effective in a few weeks.

"This arrangement," said De Brabant, "will enable passengers arriving in Los Angeles from the East to reach San Diego, Santa Barbara and other points in Southern California."

Watch Your Gums-

Bleeding a Sign

of Trouble

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhea, that dread dis-ease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhes poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. These poisons often cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Guma. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

TTABEAS CORPUS WRIT IS SOUGHT FOR MRS. PEETE.

Attorney Declares He Will Also Ask Indictments of District Attorney's Men for "Kidnaping" Her.

An effort to secure, through habeas corpus proceedings, the 'release" of Mrs. Peete from the seclusion in which the District Attorney's men have placed her was made late last night by ex-Judge Hilton, counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Peete, through application to Judge Jackson.

At 1 o'clock this morning Judge Jackson issued a writ of habeas corpus directing Chief Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran to produce Mrs. R. C. Peete in Judge Willis's court at 10 a.m. The writ was issued after Attorney Hilton filed with him a petition alleging that Mrs. Peete was held without any warrant and against her wish at the La Crescenta Hotel in La Crescenta. He told the judge that Peete called his home on the telephone and said he wanted Attorney Hilton to reach him as soon as possible. Peete's story was that he and Mrs. Peete were taken off the train at Cajon against their wish, taken to the Josephine Apartments at Seventeenth street and Grand avenue and from there to another hotel chias driven by an least teenth street and Grand avenue and from there to another hotel near Eleventh and Main streets yesterday afternoon. In his felephone message Peete told him it was his first chance to get away from custody, Attorney Hilton said.

The writ was issued and copies of it taken to the Sheriff's office. There Deputy Sheriffs Hotz, Bright and Halbrook were sent to La Crescenta to serve the writ.

Judge Hilton explained that he was brought into the case though Mrs. Ida Gregory of Denver, an old friend of his, who asked him to advise Mrs. Peete. It was Judge Hilton who first told Mrs. Peete that she should come to California to assist the aushorities, he said. Her failure to reach lim, as per arrangements, and other circumstances surrounding the hasty departure from the train in a lonely mountain pass, caused him to charge the District Attoney's office with unfair realment of Mr. and Mrs. Peete.

FROM DORAN.

Late last night The Times located Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran, who made the following statement:

"Mrs. Pecte is in seclusion, in a place in Los Angeles county. She came here voluntarily, paying her own transportation and entirely of her own free will. I took a lengthy statement from her, and I know where she is and can get in touch with her at any time to resume questioning if I deem it necessary. More than this I cannot say. I appreciate the interest taken by the public in this case, but I cannot make public, at this time, any part of the statement and do not wish to do or say anything that would in any way jeopardize the chances of successfus solution of the Denton case."

Further than this statement Mr. Doran refused to give any information. He would not discuss the possibility that the grand jury is to take up the case. He refused to say whether he had an appointment to meet Mrs. Peete took the keys with and the clothes. That Mrs. Peete took the keys with and the side belief of Detectives Canto and Hickok.

Woman's City Club. Speaking with so much feeling that his speech was difficult to understand, though it was evident he is thoroughly conversant with the English language, Klyo Sue Inul, lecturer and professor at Occidental College and the University of Southern California, gave an address before the Woman's City Club at Lincoln Hall Monday. His subject was "Japanese Immigration and Americanization."

"Your Commodore Perry came with his men to Japan many years ago," he said; "Did we ask him? No, but we let him stay. Years ago you needed laborers and you asked the Japanese to come. Now you would exclude them. Japan is trying to co-operate with you. She makes it difficult for her people to secure passports; she will not sell ticket to those who have them not. But it it true that California is so crowded you have not room?"

The Japanese speaker made his points thus with a series of questions and said: "Figures do not lie, but you can lie with figures. Let me tell you the reasons for the rapid increase in birthrate of my people. It is those of age to bear children who are here and immigrants of all nationalities have an increase in birthrate the first few years in America. Soon there will be fewer Japanese births in California."

Gurney F. Newlin spoke for amendment No. 12, which will appear on the ballot, a measure to increase the funds for the State University.

THE HUNGER STRIKE.

The Sinn Feiners have given up the hunger-strike idea, it is a long road to martyrdom and has ceased to be good advertising. It is chiefly interesting as a means of beating the high cost of living.

A N OLD TRIEND.

The expert says that it will still be some time before the dollar shirt is again in our midst—or available to cover our midst. Yet the dollar shirt was once a dear and intimate friend. MARES PROGRESS.

Mento Rico's foreign trade now exceeds $250,000,000 a year, which is a large sum when the population and other factors are considered. The sugar exports of the taland were about $100,000,000 and this, of course, was the great item. But Porto Rico has numbers of industries which are being developed steadily and the island fidicates a prosperity that is a good advertisement for the guardianship of Uncle Sam. Porto Rico will be a full-fiedged State one of these days.

ON WITH THE DANCE.

The dancing master tells us that there is the hook for the animal dances. The kangaroo hop and the wild-cat clinch have gone and even the fox trot is waning. They are trying to reach back for a dance that the Methodists will stand for and somebody the Methodists will stand for and somebody has evolved the Wesleyan waltz in which the participants sit and look at one another and hold hands whenever the whistle blows. But the old-fashioned three-step and the schottische are returning to favor and old-timers who found the hesitation tame are glad of it.

HE HANDSOME WAITER. THE HANDSOME WAITER.

About 2500 waiters and cooks are on strike in St. Louis and the hotels and restaurants now announce the open shop. If the men return it will be as individuals and the unions will no longer decide who may be employed. That, at least, is the announced attitude of the proprietors of the leading hotels and restaurants. They declined to make any reservations for the Velled Prophet festivities, which have always furnished good picking for the waiters. It remains to be seen whether St. Louis can wait on itself for a few days. If it can the open shop will prevail in most of the places where food and drink are served.

CIRES AND HISTORY. October 9 has been designated as fire svention day—a time to clean up the old mp and to head off blue blazes. People expected to think up measures to cirmwent the fire fiend, and the city authorithe and the fire department will co-operate.
The day is the anniversary of the great
Chicago fire, which started late on the night of Oct. 8, 1871, and raged all day of the
Sth. That blaze held the world's fire recplete a clean-up as a city ever had. Its origin was never reliably established. It was blamed on a cow kicking over a lamp. So the Illinois Central Railroad put cowcatchers on all its trains running into EPING WARM. They are already complaining about toy temperature in the apartment-houses of the East and the janitor has been heartily ed. In Chicago the authorities ance that if any deaths result from the failure of the heating apparatus of any flat or apartment to keep out the frost a urder trial will result. Opportunity has been given to obtain coal, and if the land-lord and janitor between them fail to keep the blood of the tenant in circulation they will be voted as homicides. The rents of apariments have jumped more than 100 per cent. That makes the tenant pretty hot, but it does not take the place of a furnace, and the law will see that it is not so un ood. Everybody cannot live in South ern California.

AYING DOWN. Wheat may be down to $1.90 a bushel but the hens haven't found it out yet. By the time the news reaches them the grain will be due for another rise. Now the hen has got mad and started to molt. As a result there aren't eggs enough to go 'round. If people don't slack up on asking for two eggs for breakfast they will go to a dollar a dozen. That's more than they re worth, but at present production the hens appear to have a union or a gentle-men's agreement or something that forbids their working overtime. The birds them-selves blame it on their foddar. They say that, on account of the awful price of feed, the poultryman basn't been giving them proper rations. There isn't enough of the egg-builder in their daily food. The hens have been kept alive and that is about all. aged to do their best. Even an open-shop hen won't work on an empty gizzard and what can be expected of a union hen?

A CRITICAL SITUATION.

A CRITICAL SITUATION.

BECAUSE opposition to the Japanese industrial invasion of California has reached a crisis in campaign year and politicians running for office are having brain storms about it, the opinion prevails in certain quarters that it is a political rather than a social and economic issue and that the real conditions are not as serious as they are being painted.

The Times began five years ago to sound a warning that Japanese immigration, despite the "gentleman's agreement," was increasing so rapidly that it was becoming a peril to white supremacy on the Pacific Coast. It then urged that the California delegation in Congress should attempt to secure legislation that would strengthen the barrier against oriental invasion. Only a desultory attempt was made to convert the "gentleman's agreement" into an act of Congress, the World War intervened and word came from the White House that any further discussion of the Japanese immigration problem would tend to weaken the alliance of the nations united against the Central Powers.

While California hesitated, the number of Japanese immigrants grew at an alarming rate. They came from many directions and through "underground" passages. In the spring of 1917 it was reported that one-third of the children born in the city of Sacramento, capital of the State, were of Japanese parentage. Vast areas in the Delta district of Northern California were leased by Japanese corporations or held by Japanese as guardians for Japanese children born in the State. Several thriving villages were, invaded by the Japanese in such numbers that the white population was driven out, for white and yellow will no more mix than oil and water.

The year that the "gentleman's agreement" was adopted 246 children were born in California of Japanese parentage. For the year ending July 30 last the number of Japanese births had increased to more than 4000. It is estimated that more than 5000 children of Japanese parentage will be born in the State this year.

There is no agricultural district

When one sees some of the best industrial districts of the State occupied by the Japanese, to the exclusion of white residents, it is no longer possible to misread the trend of events. That "gentleman's agreement" must be made more rigid. It must extend to the absolute exclusion of the Japanese laborers and the picture brides, or the Land of Sunshine will become a Japanese and the picture brides, or the Land of Sunshine will become a Japanese province.

Californians do not regard the Japanese as an inferior people. It is not a case of race hatred. But the experience of twenty years proves that the State cannot prosper half white and half yellow. If the Japanese are to continue to come in, the white population will be driven back East of the Rocky Mountains. Hawaii is now governmentally an American territory and economically and industrially a Japanese province. The Japanese outnumber the Americans five to one; and the Japanese population is multiplying while the whits population is falling off.

But the residents of California are not going to surrender their State to the yellow invaders without a struggle. They insist that as Americans they have a paramount right to the soil; and they are appealing to the residents of other States to join them in asserting that right. They are opposed to further leasing or owning land in the State by persons who cannot become citizens. They are opposed to having their children crowded out of the public schools by the children of Japanese parents. They do not want their girls to be compelled to associate with Japanese boys and men in order to secure a public education. They desire to stop the Japanese immigration by peaceful means if possible. BUT THEY ARE RESOLVED THAT IT MUST BE STOPPED. They are not courting a conflict with Japan; but they will not shrink from it if possible. BUT THEY ARE RESOLVED THAT IT MUST BE STOPPED. They are not courting a conflict with Japan; but they will not shrink from it if it is necessary to preserve California for the white race.

They are more concerned about their daughters and sons than about the possibility of offending a "friendly power." If it were possible under the Constitution for her to do so. California would pass a Japanese exclusion bill at the next session of the Legislature and would support that law, if necessary, by force of arms. That is the California spirit. California doesn't carry a chip on her shoulder. California is not "spoiling for a fight." California is not seeking to draw the Federal government into a controversy with a foreign power. But the sons and daughters of California will not surrender their homes to the Japanese invaders. They will not turn and flee eastward across the mountains. They have established themselves on the soil of an American State and they will not surrender their birthright without a struggle.

Los Angeles county feels already the grip of the Japanese. More than 80 per cent of the vegetables marketed in the city are raised by Japanese labor and sold by Japanese speculators. About half of them are grown by Japanese women, who work in the fields beside the men. The Japanese standard of living is so far below that of the white Californians that successful economic competition is impossible.

No good purpose is served by concealing the facts. The situation is the post strictle of any that has a surrender that a surrender strictle of any that has a surrender that a surrender strictle of any that has a surrender and an any strictle of any that has a surrender and an any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any that has a surrender and any strictle of any strictle of any strictle of any strictle of

No good purpose is served by concealing the facts. The situation is the most critical of any that has ever confronted an American State. With the exception of a few people who are making a profit out of dealing with the Japanese, the white population of the State is a unit against continued Japanese encroachments. The condition has been understated in the East. The Japanese must not be permitted to colonize California. The experience of Hawaii furnishes an object lesson that cannot be misunderstood. California. fornia will do its part; but it must have the co-operation of the Federal government in conjuring away the yellow peril.

CTRIKE TANGLES, D Fifty families in Chica because of strikes and wrangles of union carpenters. A large apartment-house was being built, but because of strikes and labor troubles it was impossible to get the necessary mill work in Chicago. In desperation the builders finally got it from union shops in another city. After it was in workers in other lines held up the job because of this outside help and the mill work had to be taken out and sent back. Then everybody had to wait until the situation cleared and the Chicago union shope could turn out the work. The building isn't finished yet and fifty dispossessed families are waiting in front. Because of fights beare waiting in front. Because of fights be-tween unions and sirikes in half a dozen trades the Chicago building program has been materially shortened. They have been building a great deal more in Los Angeles than Chicago, although there are thousands of families in the Illinois city who are vir-tually homeless. That doesn't make any difference to the unions, however. A union member will leave his own family without a roof rather than be on a job with a non-union man. When the unions get to fight-ing among themselves they are still more ing among themselves they are still more uncompromising. The unions will have to have a clearinghouse of their own to adjust their grievances against one another, otherwise we won't be able to have any work done except in an open shop. Any union man who is still able to think for himself and his family is inclined to accept the open shop as the best for every body, after all.

THE POWER OF MYSTERY.

Los Angeles has had many murder mysteries, but the Denton case bids fair to mysteries, but the Denton case bids fair to outrival them stil. Already the traditional nine days of wonder have passed, but the Wilshire crime retains its hold on the public interest. Scorn as some people may the taste shown in feasting on all the information dished up is connection with any who are supposed to have had an association, no matter how remote, with the "death mandon" the fact must be recognized that sion," the fact must be recognized that readers are eager to obtain the fullest de-tails. Here they have passing before them a drams in which there is mystery, sus-

They want to know about every theory held by the different officials working on the case and many of them have their own opinions. both as to motive and murderer, which they do not stint to announce. The public loves a mystery, a fact which accounts for the sale of many poorly-written stories. And when it is not a matter of fiction, but of real life and death, so much the more does it engross the people's attention. This Denton case has more than a local hold, indeed. Its ramifications extend to Denver, Salt Lake, Arizons, to roughly-built mining towns, as well as to great cities of the West. It appears to involve many; and yet, so obscure is the origin of the the law has so far been unable to point an accusing finger at any particular person and say, "Thou art the man"—or woman. GROWING HOMES.

The giant edible bamboo is being introduced in some of the watery sections of the South and is expected to indicate some value in industry. In Japan and the Orient this bamboo sometimes shows a growth of eight or ten inches in a single day and will grow to a height of fifty feet. All by itself it can furnish food, clothing and building material. In this country it is expected to have its greatest value in furniture making, but an oriental can build an entire home from this bamboo and live happily ever afterward. It might be tried in Southern California, but a bamboo mansion would hardly make a hit in a New England winter.

The Co-operative party is making nominations and placing tickets in the field in several States. It is called the Co-operative party because it is unable to co-operate with anything but itself.

Senator Borah continues to talk of the League as "un-American." He seems to be unconscious that the United States will by force of circumstances beyond its control haye to become a party to a League regardless of the election results. We shall not make a separate peace with Germany. We shall make peace on terms agreed to by all the Allies. And then we shall go further and preserve the peace as made. This puts us into the League. We shall be party to the adjustment, and we shall have a League with proper reservations. Many party to the adjustment, and we shall have a League with proper reservations. Many Republicans (and by these we do not include the Pacific Coast Senator who defeated Mr. Hughes for election four years ago and brought all the ills on the Republican party that that action involved) admit this as a necessity; and such Democratic independent papers as the New York Times and the Springfield Republican take almost the same position. Borah and Johnson are as much out of date as Jeff Davis would be. They are not sound Republicans nor Democrats; they are Borah and Johnson. Will the Republican organisation support them or the rank and file of the people?—[Indianapolis News.

STRANGE SIGHTS SEEN STRANGE SIGHTS SEEN.

The young ladies who pose around in chemisettes and combinations in the cuts in the underwear advertisements are evidently feeling the heat. Ye pastor saw some cuts the other day in which a damsel in a topiess corset and a pair of lacy rinkadorums was sipping lemonade through a straw and another cute little corn-fed in a pair of stockings and a gause undervest was busy telephoning on the other side of the mysterious mansion in which these ladies dwell.—[Arkansaw Thomas Cat.

RIPPLING RHYMES. THE RATTLESNAKE.

We were camped beside a lake, by a eucalyptus tree; someone hollered, "There's a snake! It's a rattler! Hully chee!" Then we dropped our divers chores in the twinkle of an ear; sane and useful tasks are bores when a rattlesnake is sear. And we formed a ring around, round the human race's foe, and our ingers clawed the ground for some boulders we might throw. And we threw, with bated breath, at five feet of writhing sin; battle, murder, sudden death, done up in a mottled skin! Rocks were flying thick and fast, some thrown crooked, others straight; and the serpent, to the last, dared us with a deathless hate He is ishmeal, this snake, with his rattles on behind, which, when playing tunes, can wake terrors in the bravest mind. Harried to the barren lands, driven from the field and farm, each snakes of other brands view the rattler with alarm. He has not a friend at court, where snake advocates appear, but he is a dead game sport and a stranger to all fear. And I felt a sense of shame when we'd killed that mottled thing; we had played a tinhorn game, throwing boulders in a ring. And the recollection makes lukewarm pains slide down my neck; even when we're killing snakes sportsmanship should be on deck.

WALT MASON. We were camped beside a lake, b manship should be on deck.

WALT MASON.

And what is scenery—any kins—
To soldier going home?
What's landscape to a fellow
Who's ridden before the foam?
Though waving blossoms bend and bow
And smile up in my face.
Beside a sylph-like human form
The flowers lose half their grace.

The color of their petals
Too vivid is, and sends
The hungry eye that looks for so
Where mind with matter bland
In all God's boundless handlwork
No beauty can compare
In eyes of man, as all men know,
With face of woman fair.

A voice came floating toward me, So different from the rest! Of soft low southern accent Yet gay and full of nest. It caught my ear and lingured— It must be from above— A tender, melting cadence, Like lute attuned to love.

I am a good American.
Have fought beyond the seas
For Stars and Stripes, for freedon
Faced death, overcome disease.
The call I answered giadly,
And on our mission high
For honor and humanity
Would have been proud to die.

I sought my angel, found hen,
A little fairy thing,
With brow like Annie Laurie's
And eyes, in whose deep spring
No shadow yet was mirrored—
A laughing, merry maid,
With all the world before her,
Happy and unafraid.

Perhaps they think it's fun Te furnish target practice For the devil of a Hun-

And as I ponder on my wrongs
And awar I will be true
To my country and the uniform,
Let ingrates say and do
Their worst for those who fought for them,
I long again to see
That pesky, stern old chaperen
Who snatched that girl from me.

EDITORIAL OPINION.

Gov. Cox ought to have he in the hall where he was nominated at San Francisco. Some of his hearers who attended the convention there might think he meant Mr. Murphy, Mr. Brennan, Mr. Taggart and Mr. Nugent.—[Kansas City Times.

The political benors of the victory for women may be shared by the two parties, but there appears to be little doubt that the practical benefits will be reased more largely for the Rapublican candidate. The male was now as how instructing the Republican candidate. The male voter may now get busy instructing the feminine portion of his household of the voting age whom to vote for and how to mark the ballot. The latter advice will be received, but as for the former, there will be an awakening of husbands and fatherw to the independence of thought and action by the women in their use of their new political powers.—(Baltimore American.

As a general proposition the general public manifests nothing more plainly right now than a desire to be let alone, and to give of their time, nervices and substance as they have it to spare, in accordance with their own disposition and good judgment. The organization that desires to omit the drive method in its work, no matter how worthy its cause, for the present time, will show an appreciation of existing sentiment and conditions.—[Columbus Dispatch.

The occasion will mark Oxy's first appearance of the season. It will be S.B.U.C.'s second, the baby Blue and Gold eleven having been bested by Pomona last Saturday, 41 to 0.

Trotter's boys at S.B.U.C. are naturally a bit discouraged at their showing last week, but really acquitted themselves quite creditably in view of many drawbacks. All the other southern conference colleges have three classes from which to draw for material. S.B.U.C. has one—the sophomore.

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

To the man who is worried about the cost of clothing

The cost of clothing is in the materials and in the labor.

The labor costs practically the same to all clothing manufacturers.

The cloth in a suit of clothes will average 31/3 yards.

To make cheaper clothes one must either use less labor-do fewer things that ought to be done-or use cheaper materials.

To reduce the labor cost by reducing hand-tailoring damages fit, finish and durability. To reduce the cost of materials (only 31/3 yards to a suit) must mean a big loss of quality if any noticeable reduction is made.

Society Brand Clothes are designed and tailored for men who have the good clothes habit; for men who want up-tothe-minute styles always in good taste and so well made up they will stay that way.

They have never been cheap clothes. They are not cheap clothes now.

A Message of Vital Importance To the Motor Car Buyer

It Is High Time to THINK Less of the Present and More of the Future

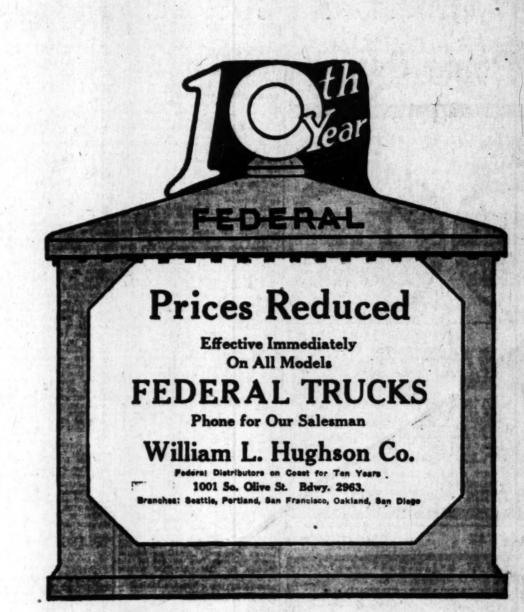

Men who are "motor wise" realize the great importance of a stabilized value in the cars they buy; they think less of the present and more of the future. It is not a question of how much they pay, but how much of their initial investment is returned in resale value. The recent decline in the prices of some makes has made their future value uncertain—it has been a frank confession of inflated prices. Stutz value is basic—since 1916 it has advanced less than any make in its class. Its value has remained stable, its price has not declined -it will not. On the other hand, everything points to an increase. By sound business principles, if the time was ever ripe to buy a car, now is the time to buy your Stutz. It is high time to "think less of the present and more of the future." Convenient terms can be arranged.

"Farthbound" Attracts.

"Earthbound," the Basil King photodrama, continues to sitract expancity audiences at Miller's Theoster.

The picture carries a strong moral lesson, which will not only be entoyed, but remembered. Wyndham Randing's portrayal of a difficult role is very effective, and the supporting cast affords a commendable balance.

"Round-up" Repeats.

Fatty Arbuckle is the star of the Garrick program in his first six-reel production, "The Round-up."

The feature is taken from the famous stage success, with funny Patty in the role of Slim Hoover, the folly sheriff. in shof the production. Her role calls for high-tension emotional acting and Miss Frederick, long before taken, was determined to present a new Madame X to the screen audiences. She spent hours studying out each episode.

Miss Frederick has the role of Jaqueline Floriot, wife of a deputy attorney of Paris, who has driven the from his home because of his unjust suspicions concerning her relations with another man. The first scenes show her returning to her home in an effort to see her young son, who is seriously ill. But her husband confronts her and it spite of her pleas drives her into the street again, telling her that her son believes her dead.

Twenty years later she is in Buenos Aires, a wreck of a woman frequenting underworld resorts, drinking absinthe and eiher, a woman who has seen life at fits worst. She comes back to France as the companion of a crook, hoping to be able to behold her son before she dies. She kills her companion because he attempts to use her in a blackmail plan after learning something of her life story.

The subsequent plot development, where she is tried for murder, is powerful in its drama.

SLEUTH DUPED.

before the grand jury scheduled for today are of a more or less routine nature.

SLEUTH DUPED.

Josephine Villareal, 18, and Joseph Rodriguez, alias Joseph Burleson, were arrested in San Francisco yesterday in connection with a fake Denton murder tip. Police Captain O'Mears, who made the arrests, said he also will ask for a warrant for Guy Biddinger, a private detective of this city, because, Rodriguez alleges, Biddinger told him that the police were after him and that he and the girl had better go in hiding. O'Meara says Biddinger had previously promised to help the police find the 'couple. Biddinger, it appears, was luned from Los Angeles to the morthern city by a fanciful story of Rodriguez that he could locate the slayers of Denton. The northern police think he was simply "stringing" the detective for what he could get. Rodriguez is held on charges of kidnaping, mistreating the girl and impersonating a Los Angeles deputy sheriff.

The police detectives working on the case were greatly handicapped yesterday by their inability to consult Mrs. Peete on matters arising from the evidence discovered by them during the day and on the day preceding her arrival. Among the matters they wanted checked up was the trunk found in the Denton home, said to contain a number of articles of personal nature, some silver, and several pieces of fine Irish linen, identified by L. A. Beck, a relative, as the property of Mrs. Dolly Winters Denton, Denton's second wife, who died here in March. This trunk was locked. The key is missing, on the top of the trunk is a piece of paper reading, in Mrs. Poete's own handwriting, "This is the property of Mrs. R. C. Peete."

Other developments uncovered by investigators included the definite ascertaining that the Denton home at 675 South Catalina street was brought by Mr. Denton from D. F. Keenan and that the property is in Denton's name or in that of his second wife, who died here in March This trunk was asserted.

Investigators included the definite ascertainty whether it was in Denton, now tivines along that line, also were responsible for the search into the records.

New information about the history of Mrs. Peete's life also was learned during the day through the agency of a postcard, written by R. C. Peete in 1914 from Akron. O., and addressed to Mrs. L. L. Preslar at 4111 East Twenty-sixth avenue. Denver, Colo. This is said to be Mrs. Peete's name before what now appears to have been her second marriage. This surmise is partly borne out by signatures of Mrs. Peete in which she uses the initials, "L. P."

It carried the "Mrs. L. P. Peete' signature, which was used as an indorsement on a check-for $26.65 on September 15, last, made out to Mrs. Peete by H. Ray Woods, as the total of three checks previously made to Denton's order and requested changed by Mrs. Peete to her own order. The name of Mrs. T. D. Phelps also appears on the back of the check.

ohn Treanor Lies Two Days Lost in Island Gorge.

Sumble Breaks Leg; Injuries and Rocks Entrap Him.

Found After Oruel Exposure He's on Way to Recovery.

John Treanor, manager of the iverside Portland Cement Comany, who, after a two-day search by arties of friends was found yesterlay lying with a broken leg at the bottom of a deep canyon on Catalina Island, is expected to return to his home in this city today. His condition, which was at first said to be serious due to the injuries received in his fall and the exposure without ood or drink for forty-eight hours was reported last night by wireless telephone from Avalon to be much Slipping from a norrow trail that hugs the wall of a canyon 700 feet in depth, Mr. Treanor fell heavily down into a growth of brush where the formation of the rocks and the serious injury to his leg kept him a prisoner until the searching party, headed by Percy H. Booth, a personal friend, discovered him.

Mr. Treanor had started out toward Sliver Canyon early Sunday morning, and when he did not return that night or the next day, Mrs. Treanor almost collapsed from worry. Slipping from a norrow trail tha morning, and when he did not return that night or the next day, Mrs. Treanor almost collapsed from worry.

Parties of friends from Avalon and this city were hastily formed, and every canyon and guich in the vicinity of the island city was searched. Arrangements had been made with the Syd Chaplin Aviation Company by Sheriff Cline and Chief Deputy Sheriff Manning to fly over the island in an airplane, but word was wirelessed by telephone that Mr. Treanor had been found. Two hydroplanes were sent out from the San Diego air station and could not be recalled before they reached the island, C. L. Parton, a business associate of Mr. Treanor, had offered a reward of $1000 to the person first to find the missing man.

Mr. Treanor, whose home is at 691 South Kingsley Drive, arrived at the Island City last week with his wife and children. Mrs. Treanor was one of several women who were decorated by the Queen of Belgium during the visit of the Belgian royal party in Los Angeles.

Credit for the discovery of Mr. Treanor in his perilous position up the side of the canyon wall was given to George Farnsworth, veteran sea captain of Catalina Island, by Percy H. Booth of 960 Elden avenue on his return from the island last night.

The manner in which Mr. Treanor had failen from the canyon trail, said Mr. Booth, had made it extremely difficult for searching parties to detect his predicament from a fatal plunge to the floor of the canyon below. In slipping from the mountain path he had fallen over and under a protruding ledge, which both shut him off from searchers above and prevented his egress to the trail. Below a sheer cliff dropped to the bottom of Silver Canyon and it was necessary for the rescuing party to use ropes in order to pull the injured man to safety.

Mr. Treanor had supplied himself Canyon and it was necessary for the rescuing party to use ropes in order to pull the injured man to safety. Mr. Treanor had supplied himself with a canteen and lunch when he started out upon the tramp, but this was lost when he fell, and left him meeting of about 400 persons in the Boyle Heights Public Library, when he called attention to the fact that Chicago spent $150,000,000 to remove the grade crossings from her streets, and that the longer this work is delayed by Los Angeles the greater will be the expense.

Scores of persons on the island ook part in the all-night search useday, which was facilitated with he ald of powerful searchlights rom launches along the coast.

"Let me urge you to think in millions, rather than in triffing sums," said the speaker, "because this city will be a city of 1,000,000 people before you realize it. In the last ten years it gained 275,000 and had hydroelectric power, Aqueduct water and a harbor for but a short period of the time. What may we expect in the next ten years?"

Mr. Gibbon declared that the Southern Pacific has fringed with fences Alhambra avenue—the broadast street in the city—and has made a right-of-way out of Alameda street in the business district. He said that Fourth. Fifth and Sixth streets are plugged at the east end, so far as Boyle Heights is concerned, and declared that if the Southern Pacific is permitted to carry out the "Titcomb plan" Sixth street will be depressed eight feet and a two-story elevated road will be built to handle steam and interurban trains.

"The day of elevated railways in "The day of elevated railways in first-class American cities is past," declared the speaker. "They're building subways everywhere, these days, and that's what the Plaza plan

William Workman, Jr., spoke on William Workman, Jr., spoke on the depressing influence which a network of trestles across the river would exert over Boyle Heights residents and their property interests. He asserted that the district of fine homes and gublic improvements would be converted into a snorting, puffing river crossing for hundreds of trains a day and that the great wooden trestles would be an everlasting eyesore in the community.

The very thing every man wants

He wants to assure the independence of his wife and family, whatever happens to himself or to his fortune.

He wants to create for them an estate which will not be subject to the obligations of his business.

He wants to provide a separate income which business reverses will not interrupt or absorb.

The "Bank of Italy Trust Plan" for creating and enlarging an estate makes these things possible. The plan appeals strongly to business men. Have you received our booklet describing it in detail? Ask

I heard a little yarn yesterday that may throw an intimate sidelight on the political understanding of the two participants in the Senatorial race. Up in San Francisco the other day took place a meeting at which both Senator Phelan and Samuat M. Shortridge were invited to be present and speak. The Senator, as I get it, sent his speech in the form of a letter of regret. Mr. Shortridge apeared in person and spoke his. Beforehand, I am told, the meeting promised to be an un-

Now there's a way to daily combat film. Millions of people employ it. Shining teeth seen everywhere show how much it means. This is to urge that you try it and see what it means to you.

You must fight film

That viscous coat you feel on teeth is film. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tdoth brush does not end it used in ordinary ways. So, in the months between your dental cleanings, it may do ceaseless damage.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Rilm is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorthes. And that is alarmingly common.

Science finds ways

Dental science has for years sought ways to fight that film. Proper tooth This world-wide research has resulted in efficient methods, now at your command.

Years of careful tests have proved them. Authorities endorse them. Leading dentists everywhere advise them.

The methods are combined now in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Millions already employ it, largely by dental advice. To those who do not know it yet we send a test tube free.

ILLINOIS TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, CHICAGO, TRUSTEE

Further information in regard to this issue of notes is given in a letter of Mr. L. F. Swift, President of the Company, which we summarize as follows:

The notes will be the direct obligation of Swift and Company, one of the largest and most successful concerns in the world, engaged in the production and sales of meats and their by-products. The notes are followed by $150,000,000 authorized and issued capital stock, upon which dividends at the rate of 8% per annum are now being paid. The company has paid cash dividends without interruption for the past 35 years. Net earnings available for interest (after provision for Federal and foreign taxes) for the five years ending November 1, 1929, averaged $28,-842,807. The average interest charges on all outstanding obligations during these five years were approximately $7,995,815.

Total sales of the company's products have increased from $250,-000,000 in 1909 to over $1,200,-000,000 in 1919.

The trust indenture requires the maintenance of current assets to an aggregate amount equal to at least one and one-half times current liabilities, plus the amount of these notes outstanding, and provides that no new mortgage may be created against present assets and property.

The financial statement of the company as of November 1, 1919, and after giving effect to this financing, shows net assets of $345,054,896, applicable to a total funded debt, including this issue, of $95,258,500.

Pending delivery of definitive notes, it is expected that interim receipts will be ready for delivery on or about October 15, 1920. All legal matters in connection with this issue shall be approved by Messrs Winston.

property law, No. 13 on the November ballot, if allowed to go into efnome, that it will create between husband and wife an attitude of suspicion and that in its operation it will greatly increase the divorce evil was pointed out by former State Senator L. H. Roseberry, trust officer of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, in an address yesterday afternoon before the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Ebell clubhouse.

Stress was laid upon the fact that the law in its operation would con-stitute a menace to the home. Through this law, the wife would be Through this law, the wife would be given a testamentary power over one-balf of the community property and be enabled without the consent of the husband to will her half of the property to her children, even though they ware children of a former marriage. All property, under these circumstances, would be thrown into probate, and knowledge on the part of the husband that the wife had this power of interrupting his business and of creating entanglements in its conduct through testamentary disposition would often create a feeling of distrust between husband and wife, according to the speaker.

husband and wife, according to the speaker.

The law is framed ostensibly to protect the interests of the children by permitting the wife to leave her share of the community property to them, yet in its operation the law would disinherit the children unless specific provision were made for them by will, a condition which does not now prevail. Under the proposed law it is provided that when either husband or wife dies without a will, the surviving spouse shall take the whole of the community property and the children inherit nothing. Thus, declared Senator Roseberry, an impelling motive is furnished for either parent to decline to give written consent to the will of the other, thus forcing intestacy and vesting the whole of the property in the survivor, a circumstance which would further promote discord in the home.

the whole of the property in the survivor, a circumstance which would further promote discord in the home.

No benefit would accrue to married people who have no children, for the only advantage to childless married people would be the fact that the survivor would inherit the whole of the community property, said the speaker. On the other hand, he pointed out, the law would prevent either the husband or the wife from leaving a dollar to a father, a mother, a dependent relative, or to charity, without the written consent of the other spouse. It is doubtful whether this consent could be obtained, in many cases, and even if obtained, it might later be revoked secretly, invalidating the will and forcing intestacy, said Senator Roseherry. In cases where there are children, he declared, secret revocation of the will through this means would exclude the children and all other beneficiaries from their inheritances.

The proposed community property law is not necessary, Senator Roseberry declared. An examination of 3263 cases of probated estates was recently made here and it was found that 100 per cent of the men survived by widows as their sole heirs left the whole of the testamentary shares of their estates to their widows, while of the men who left widows and other heirs-at-law, 73 per cent left the whole of their estates to their widows. In ne case was anything left to strangers, except for a few minor bequests, and the number of cases in which property was treated as being separate was very small. Of the men who were survived by children as their sole heirs, 100 per cent left the whole of their estates to their widows with the exception of one case, in which about 20 per cent of the estate was addressed yesterday afternoon by W. Rhodes Hervey of the Title Insurance and Trust Company, who spoke along similar lines.

Postpone Hearing of Dismiss Order in Raisin Case.

An argument on the motion to dis-miss the bill of complaint of the government against the California ociated Raisin Company, charging violation of the Sherman antitrust law, which was booked for U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court today, has been postponed until the latter part of the week, probably

If the motion to dismiss is grant-If the motion to dismiss granted that will mark the end of the present litigation; if it is denied, the trial of the case on its merits will be set for some future date when the Federal court sits in Freshoa. The postponement announced yesterday was on account of the inability of the attorneys representing the corporation to be present. If the case comes on for a further hearing it will be on the issue whether an asserted monopoly as such can be prosecuted merely because it is a monopoly, without any charges that it is induiging in violations of law as defined by the Sherman and Clayton laws.

By virtue of the stipulation signed some time ago, the California Associated Raisin Company agreed to change its methods of doing business along lines suggested by the government, and there is nothing now to litigate, provided the motion to dismiss is denied, but the sole issue whether a monopoly per se is amenable to prosecution, where no illegal acts are charged or claimed. ed that will mark the end of the
